

Corporate Finance Supervisor

Situated in a vibrant rural community close to the shores of Lake Huron, ONE CARE Home & Community Support Services offers the opportunity to 'change your life with life changing work'.

At ONE CARE, you will be part a great team where we focus on the quality of our programs, excellence in service delivery, and our reputation as an innovator and leader in the local community.

We are seeking a motivated Corporate Finance Supervisor to lead the strategic and operational oversight of the financial position and planning for the organization. Providing oversight for the staff and functions within Finance including Payroll, Accounts Receivable and Accounts Payable, the Corporate Finance Supervisor will ensure that sufficient financial controls are in place and monitored, and will play a lead role in identifying & conducting financial analysis and reporting.

Our ideal candidate holds a university degree or college diploma with a major in Finance, Accounting or Commerce plus a minimum of 2 years of related experience. We welcome individuals who are working towards a CPA designation. Experience supervising employees is preferred along with the ability to thrive in an organization that constantly evolves and adapts to changes in community health care.

Now is the time to change a life with life-changing work!

This is a one year full time contract position. Interested applicants are invited to submit a cover letter and resume online at the following link:
